

HE'S BACK !!!

RALPH LEITNER TO ENTERTAIN AT MCC !!!

FRIDAY NIGHT DINNER – SEPT 10, 2010

Ralph Leitner has been singing and playing guitar as a “serious hobby” for over 20 years (if only his day job hadn’t gotten in the way.) This amateur musician started off covering the likes of John Denver, Neil Diamond and others he’s forgotten. He followed by adding more contemporary “folkish” tunes and then moved onto the instrumental side and has become influenced by some complex fingerstyle guitar melodies of traditional Celtic tunes. Those now slightly dominate the music he plays for small audiences, who simply like live, quality music “in the background”.
